Dear Parents/Guardians:

We are pleased to let you know that the BCPSEA and the BCTF have reached a tentative agreement in regards to the teachers' contract. A resolution at the bargaining table is the best outcome for public education in BC and I extend congratulations to the bargaining teams on both sides and to their mediator.

We are now waiting for details from teachers and school boards on the ratification process. This process is expected to be completed by Friday. If accepted, we expect to be able to post opening procedures to the district website by the end of this week ( www.sd41.bc.ca ). While there are still many organizational tasks that require teacher participation, we appreciate the work that our principals, vice-principals and district staff have been doing to ensure as smooth an opening as possible.

As a district, we remain committed to helping our students achieve their learning goals and to ensuring that the school year is successful for all. Thank you for your support of public education.

Sincerely,

Kevin Kaardal,
Superintendent of Schools/CEO
